FRENCH TROOPS HAMMER AT HEART OF GERMANY'S VEST WALL, PENETRATING MORE DEEPLY OUTER DEFENSES AS THE GERMANS SMASH SPEEDILY THROUGH POLAND ON TWO FRONTS

French Bring Hundreds of Tanks and Swift-Striking Infantrymen Into Action on Heart of German Line—Advance Said to Have Taken in Some of the Villages in Saar Territory

(By International News Service)

French troops, soon to be supported actively by a powerful, mechanized British expeditionary force, today hammered anew at the heart of the German west wall, penetrating more deeply its outer defenses, according to French advices, while Germany's steam roller smashed at unexpected speed through Poland in the north and southwest.

Concentrating on wiping out the little pill boxes and machine-gun emplacements in hilly pockets before the more solid German lines, the French brought heavy artillery, hundreds of tanks, and swift-striking infantrymen into action on the heart of the German Limes line.

While French communiqués remained laconic, mentioning only continued progress, unconfirmed word from Switzerland said the French had driven through, with but little resistance, to points more than six miles beyond the original French lines in the Moselle Valley.

This drive is headed for Saarbrücken, and already has taken in some villages of the Saar territory, which were returned to Germany under a plebiscite in 1935.

Germans persisted, however, in claiming that not one shot has been fired along the Limes line adjoining France; all Berlin war bulletins concentrated on the rapid push of German troops through Poland.

Fighting bitterly to defend Warsaw, the Poles were making a strong stand 30 miles north of the former capital, on the line between Pultusk and Plonsk.

But if the Poles are defeated on that line, they are ready to fall back on Warsaw's formidable natural defenses, the Bug River and its swamps only seven miles north of the city.

A major secondary line of defense already is being drawn up along the Bug, and observers feel it may be possible to stop the Germans there just as Franco's forces were halted outside Madrid on the Manzana River in the early stages of the Spanish Civil War.

Having taken Cracow, and left it far in the rear, and having approached Lodz, the German army now has vitally all the wealthy and productive coal and industrial region of southwestern Poland under its control.

While their march through Silesia involved capture of Poland's initial pill-box defenses, the Germans' hardest task yet lies before them.

For the Poles say they never planned to hold the area west of the Vistula River. They planned to fall back into their wild forests and swamps, where the mechanical equipment of the Germans will be relatively useless, and occupy the Germans there while the French and British open up on the Rhine front.

As the Polish Embassy spokesman in London explained, admitting the fall of Katowice: "This town, only 15 miles from German territory, could not be defended under the present Polish strategic plan."

"The present strategic position in Poland closely resembles that of France in 1914, when the northern parts of France were largely occupied by the German invaders. It took the Allies four years to drive them out, but the Allies were victorious in the end. We expect this to happen again this time."

The military picture as presented in Berlin, however, indicates that the two armies moving down from the north for a pincer movement on Warsaw intend to avoid the swamps north of the city, at the same time driving the Poles into the swampy region towards the east.

The Germans say the new seat of the Polish government, Lublin, southwest of Warsaw, will be within artillery range within a day or two.

Military observers recall that it was on the line of the Bug, where the Poles plan their stand against the Germans, that Marshal Pilsudski turned back the Russians in the decisive battle of the Vistula in 1920.

From Rome came reports that neutral Italy and the Vatican are planning a prompt move for an armistice, to be followed by a conference of the powers. This would fit in with Chancellor Hitler's aims for now, with the Polish Corridor in his control, and most of the areas which are predominantly German, Hitler can present the western allies with a fait accompli—actual possession of the areas he demanded.

WAR DISPATCHES

Berlin, Sept. 7.—Rapidly closing in on Warsaw, the German military high command today announced a swift approach to Tomaszow and Lodz, after the capture of Kielce.

"The Poles continued to retreat on all fronts," an official communiqué declared.

"Effectively supported by the air force, German troops remain on the heels of the retreating Poles, pursuing them hotly and engaging the enemy in battle."

"On the southern front the Germans crossed the Danube River."

Reports coming into Berlin merely say that the Polish army is partially in a state of "disillusionment." This was indicated by the reported annihilation of Czech Polish units like the 9th and 23d divisions and the famed Pomorski Cavalry.

Thus, say the Germans, it must be assumed that the flower of Polish ability has been wiped out.

Germany also asserted that Poland's only armored division, No. 8, was completely annihilated, and that Chasseurs divisions Nos. 1 and 2 likewise were wiped out.

Booby taken by the northern army operating southward in the Corridor beyond the first line of fortresses, marked by Graunau and Bromberg, has increased to 90 field guns.

The number of prisoners taken so far cannot be estimated accurately, but it was said to be increasing every hour.

Roads in the Corridor are littered everywhere with Polish machine guns, rifles, and other equipment, hastily dropped during the hurried retreats, it was claimed.

Paris, Sept. 7.—Full co-operation by the British and French high commands for uninterrupted continuance of the offensive against Germany's Silesia Line, which began with penetration of the British overseas army and air forces, were officially received by the French high command in plans discussed for joint operations against the enemy.

At the same time it was officially disclosed that units of the British Royal Air Force are already operating.

FIND BODIES OF TWO MEN; NEITHER ONE IDENTIFIED

Authorities Await Positive Identification of Both Victims

ONE A TRAIN VICTIM

The lifeless bodies of two men, neither of whom have been definitely identified, were found in central Bucks county during the past 18 hours. They were removed to the Brown morgue in Newtown to await identification.

One of the victims was found along the railroad tracks, one mile southwest of Newtown last evening at 6.30, he evidently being struck by a freight train which left Newtown yesterday noon. The engineer, John Robinson, saw the body as his train approached Newtown, halting the train the engineer had the body taken aboard and into Newtown.

The victim had a fractured skull, and both legs and both arms were broken. In his pocket was a Social Security card bearing the name of Patrick McGinnis, 3708 Fairmount avenue, Philadelphia. Officials were not able, up to noon today, to establish identity. The man was neatly dressed in new overalls, and all other articles of clothing were new. He was aged about 45 years.

Returning home from Philadelphia this morning at 2.30 o'clock, Mrs. George Meyer, Pineville, discovered the body of a man lying along Second Street Pike, two miles from Southampton. She notified Constable John Frey, of Northampton Township, and the Pennsylvania Motor Police at Oxford Valley were notified in turn.

In the man's pocket was found a billhead from a Baltimore, Md., motel, made out to "George Crisman," this name corresponding to a label in the hat, which bore also the name of a haberdasher in Orange, N. J.

The victim was aged about 60 or 65, had gray hair, weighed approximately 145 pounds, and was five feet, ten inches tall. Authorities believe he was walking along the highway when struck by a passing car. He had evidently been thrown about 20 feet. Stamp marks of the name on his clothing indicated he may have been a resident of an institution. He wore a dark blue suit, and black shoes.

278 COUPLES GIVEN LICENSES IN AUGUST

Second Biggest "August" Recorded Since Back in 1935

WIDE RANGE OF AGES

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 7.—Extreme heat, the vacation season or nothing else had the slightest effect on the marriage license business in Bucks county during August when 278 couples were granted licenses by the Clerk of Orphans' Court in the Bucks County Court House.

And August's business was the second biggest "eight month" business this Quaker county has ever recorded. Back in 1935, just one month before Pennsylvania's new three-day law went into operation, a total of 282 licenses were granted that year in August. The third largest August business was transacted in 1934 when 216 licenses were granted. The month of all months was June this year when 285 were issued.

To issue 278 marriage licenses in one month keeps the clerks in the Orphans' Court very busy to get the licenses out on time, but efficient clerks have made it possible that no applicants have ever been disappointed.

So far this year, up until the marriage license bureau closed, a total of 1832 licenses had been granted in Bucks county, far out in front of any other year.

The 556 individuals who applied for licenses in August ranged in ages from a miss of 15 summers to a twice-married 79-year-old lower Bucks county farmer. The average age of the female applicants in August was 26 years, while the male applicants averaged 27 years.

Eighty-five per cent of the applicants in August were non-residents of Bucks county, the large percentage of them coming from New Jersey and from Philadelphia. Jersey applicants outnumbered all others last month. The applicants came from nine different states.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

"Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc."

Nonpartisanship?

September 6. EVERY decent American will want to respond to the "simple plea" of the President made Sunday night to put partisanship aside and co-operate in effecting a national unity behind American foreign policy that will lend power to the voice of this country, insure respect for its neutrality and strengthen it for any emergency.

THAT does not mean that our normal political processes are to be abandoned; that opposition to Mr. Roosevelt's domestic policies is to become diluted or that there need be any diminution in what seems a majority determination to rid the country of New Dealism

Here and There in Bucks County Towns

Announcement was made this morning by Harris Holmes, president of the Loyal Republican Club, of Buckingham, that "Candidate Night" will be observed on Monday evening, September 11. Frank Buck's famous picture, "Bring 'Em Back Alive," will be shown. Refreshments will be served.

Harry C. LaRue, Montgomery county builder, died Sunday at his home, 5 Wynnewood avenue, Abington, following a heart attack. He was 63.

Born in Bucks county, Mr. LaRue had been a builder in the Abington section for 40 years. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Emma P. LaRue; a son, Morrell, of Coatesville, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Brown, of West Virginia.

Funeral services will be held at two p. m., today, at his home. Burial will be in the Wrightsville (Bucks county) burying ground.

The zoning commission named by South Langhorne Borough Council to recommend the boundaries of certain districts in the borough and regulations to be enforced in them, will hold a public hearing at the council's meeting place in the South Langhorne school building on Thursday evening, September 14, at eight o'clock.

All persons interested are invited to attend and will be given an opportunity to be heard in the matter.

The commission consists of John S. Lappan, N. Robert Keim, B. Sylvester, P. E. Keating and Alexander Knox.

Patricia Phipps, Four Years Old, Has A Party

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur R. Phipps, Croydon Manor, entertained in honor of their daughter Patricia's fourth birthday anniversary. Favours were pink and yellow baskets and balloons, and decorations were in pink and yellow, and prizes were won by Wayne Scott and Betty Burtonwood.

Those present: Arlene Goodspeed, Betty Burtonwood, Billy White, Patricia Downing, Bobby Markel, Irene Markel, Dennis Dugan, Diane Dugan, Bristol; Patricia Phipps, Wayne Scott, Janice Scott, Marcia Van Langdon, Croydon Manor; Marcia Jane Phipps, Trenton, N. J.; Lois Lange, Dundalk, Md.

Patricia received many lovely gifts.

MORRISVILLE MISS HAS PROLONGED MOTOR TRIP

Miss Effie Hibbs, in Company With Ardmore Miss, Journeys to West and Alaska

VISIT NATIONAL PARKS

MORRISVILLE, Sept. 7.—Miss Effie Hibbs, 27 Union street, is back at her duties in the public schools here, following a two months motor vacation trip to the Western States, to Western Canada, and a boat trip to Alaska. She was accompanied by Miss Pearl Seitz, of Ardmore, whom Miss Hibbs met during a European trip in 1939, the two making several vacation jaunts together since that time.

The two left on June 21st for San Francisco, Cal., where they attended the World's Fair, and the National Education Convention.

The journey took them to such points of interest as Boulder Dam, the Grand Canyon of the Colorado; Yosemite, General Grant and Sequoia National Parks; to Crater Lake in Oregon, to the fish ladders on the Columbia River, and to Bonneville Dam.

Granzow Dancing Academy Opens For The Season

The Granzow Dancing Academy in Croydon was re-opened for the 1939-40 season, Tuesday, for enrollments.

The Academy was established in 1935, and each season has been marked by some definite improvement in both the studio and direction of the school, as well as the pupils who attend it.

This past Summer saw Miss Charlotte Cairns launched on a professional career as a dancer; two weeks' engagement of Miss Gloria Greco at the Steel Pier, Atlantic City, N. J.; as well as various public appearances of many other pupils of the Academy.

Miss Sara Granzow, directress, attended the convention of the Dancing Masters of America, held in New York City, and spent several weeks there preparing and arranging new material and ideas to be used in the academy this season, returning home to supervise the complete "rejuvenation" of her studio. The redecorations and installation of new equipment, it is said, make this one of the best and most complete dancing academies in the country, fully capable of handling any number of children and adults.

The reopening of the Granzow Dancing Academy in Croydon, for instruction, was effective Wednesday.

OPPOSE BUND CAMP OUTSIDE SELLERSVILLE

Residents Take Exception To Remarks Made At Meeting

PLACE IS STONED

SELLERSVILLE, Sept. 7.—The camp of the German-American Bund located just outside of the borough and which formerly was situated in Bristol Township, near Croydon, is the source of much controversy. Numerous complaints have been filed with Roy Stacker, president of Borough Council, concerning the activities of the German-American Deutschhorst but the local authorities are powerless to act, even in the event that definite charges should be pressed by complainants.

The country club, at which Fritz Kuhn delivered an address on Sunday pronouncing that "Hitler can lick the world," and insulting President Roosevelt, is in West Rockhill township, and is entirely outside the jurisdiction of the borough.

Mr. Stacker said that the borough may ask advice from the federal authorities.

Meanwhile some local citizens were reported indignant over the situation, while others are unconcerned. Quotations from men along the main street ranged from comments that Kuhn was strictly within his constitutional rights in saying what he pleased, to the extremist reaction recommending "cleaning up the place." Meanwhile, a certain amount of malicious mischief has been committed around the buildings, including the tearing down of entrance signs, which were later recovered in Parkside.

"Adolf Hitler can lick the whole world," some 2,000 German-American Bund members were told by Fritz Kuhn, national Bund leader, at a holiday gathering at the Deutschhorst Country Club.

"We want to be citizens if they will let us," Kuhn declared, "but our hearts are with Germany. They can put us behind iron bars, but they can't kill our fighting spirit."

NUMEROUS CASES HEARD BY COURT; SENTENCES IMPOSED

Robert Conklin, 34, Indiana, Given Suspended Sentence By Judge Keller

3 BENCH WARRANTS

Bensalem Township Man Pleads Guilty To Drunken Driving

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 7.—Robert Conklin, 34, Hammond, Ind., who pleaded guilty to the larceny of an automobile and who served 10 months in the Philadelphia County Prison, was given a suspended sentence by President Judge Keller on Tuesday afternoon, and placed on probation for a year.

Pleading guilty to drunken driving in Bensalem township July 22, Joseph Winciewicz, Bristol R. D. No. 2, who was arrested by Private S. J. Butcavage, of the South Langhorne sub-station of the Penna. Motor Police, was sentenced by President Judge Keller to serve not less than 30 days nor more than two years in the Bucks County Prison. The costs of prosecution were directed placed on the county.

President Judge Keller issued bench warrants for three defendants who failed to make their appearance in court on Tuesday—Wesley Getz, 186 North Main street, Doylestown, charged with non-support, and William Hutchins and Chester L. Kimes, both of whom are charged with violation of a parole.

The case of Domick Basso, Rushland, charged with non-support, was ordered continued until October 1 by President Judge Keller, who reprimanded the defendant for not getting a job and staying sober, and also his wife. "You, as a couple, have given us considerable trouble since May, 1938," said the Court.

President Judge Hiram H. Keller committed Hazel Carver, of Langhorne, charged with abandonment of a minor child, to the Pennsylvania State Industrial School at Muncy. The defendant pleaded guilty to abandoning her son August 11 in Langhorne.

Testimony was heard in the case of Harold Peterson, 23, of New Hope, a Negro, who is charged with violation of his parole. Disposition of the case will be made later by Judge Calvin S. Boyer.

Judge Boyer ordered Joseph Dize, of Trenton, N. J., to pay $4 a week for the support of two children who live with his former wife in Morrisville. The order was increased from $3 to $4. He was permitted to visit his children on Thursday afternoon and on Sunday until 7 o'clock.

Miss Josephine Bussey, 23, colored, of Langhorne, pleaded guilty before Judge Keller to a charge of aggravated assault and battery upon Anna Belle Hawkins. She has been in prison two months. The defendant is unmarried and has five children.

"You are fast on the road to being a moral degenerate," Judge Keller remarked. "If this conduct does not stop you will get away for good."

The defendant admitted attacking Mrs. Hawkins with a knife.

Judge Keller sentenced the defendant to serve 3 months to 3 years in the Bucks County Prison from the date of commitment.

Frank Boccardo, 52, of Newtown, was before the Court this morning on a charge of non-support brought by his wife, Mary, 51.

Mrs. Boccardo told Judge Keller that she has 10 children and that her husband lives at home but does not support the family.

William Allen, 22-year-old Philadelphia youth, who pleaded guilty to drunken driving and felonious entry into a garage, before President Judge Hiram H. Keller, here, Tuesday, was sentenced to serve not less than three months nor more than two years in Continued on Page Six

PRESENT GIFTS

Miss Rose Tiberio, 802 Jefferson avenue, was tendered a surprise miscellaneous shower Saturday evening, by Miss Theresa Conti, 817 Garden street; Miss Mary Lentini, Wood street, and Mrs. James Eppolito, Philadelphia. The party was held in the basement of the Tiberio home. Refreshments were served, and a social time enjoyed. Those present: the Misses Anna Bevin, Jennie DeTanna, Anna Salerno, Mary Peterpaul, Clementine DiNunzio, Mary Tiberio; Alfred Tiberio, Patsy Tiberio, Mrs. Joseph Tiberio, Bristol; Joseph DePowell, Gerald Chiorello, Mrs. A. # RECIPES: Those Which Interest Women

"PEACHY" DISHES FOR PEACH TIME

Here are two delicious desserts for those who like to take advantage of "peach time" by serving this fresh fruit in different forms. If you cannot wait for the fresh fruit, use canned peaches. No eggs are needed except for the meringue on the rennet custard. No baking. No boiling. In a few minutes you have a dessert that is fit for a king and particularly desirable for those little princes and princesses in the home who will not drink their daily quota of milk.

Peach Shortcake

- 1 package lemon rennet powder
- 4 pieces sponge cake (leftover cake may be used)
- 1 pint milk
- A few thin slices fresh or canned peaches.

Place the pieces of cake in the bottom of the dessert dishes. Put two or three slices of the canned or fresh peaches over the top of each piece of cake. Make rennet custard according to directions on package. Pour over pieces of cake and peaches and let set until firm—about 10 minutes. Then chill in refrigerator. Serves 4-5.

Lemon Peach Rennet Custard

- 1 package lemon rennet powder
- 1 pint milk
- 3 peaches, sliced thin.

Drain peach slices and arrange on sides of 5 dessert glasses. Make rennet-custard according to directions on package. Pour at once into dessert glasses. Let set until firm—about 10 minutes. Then chill in refrigerator. When ready to serve, place meringue on each dessert and garnish with currant jelly.

Meringue: 2 egg whites, 4 tablespoons sugar. Beat egg whites until

Jack Horner's Choice

By Frances Lee Barton

"He stuck in his thumb and pulled out a plum and said 'what a brave boy am I!'"

Jack Horner was not the only one with a plum complex. This delicious fruit has millions of friends. Now that fresh plums are obtainable (as well as home canned), why not feature an unusual plum dessert in your home? Let your little Jack Horner stick in his thumb and pull out a plum—figuratively speaking, of course!

Plums Grenadier

1 package cherry-flavored gelatin; 1 cup hot water; 1 cup juice from plums; 1 cup canned or stewed fresh blue plums.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add plum juice. Chill. When slightly thickened, fold in plums. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Serves 6.

stiff, then gradually beat in sugar. Drop 5 separate heaping tablespoons on buttered baking sheet dusted with flour. Bake in moderate oven (325 degrees F.) until slightly browned, about 20 minutes. Cool thoroughly. Serves 4-5.

Orange Toast

- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 1 teaspoon grated orange rind

1/2 cup sugar

6 slices buttered toast. Mix orange juice, rind and sugar. Spread on hot buttered toast and put in hot oven or under broiler to brown.

Follow Fashion and Add Trimmings: A Ball of Sherbet on Fruit Salad or Fruit Cup, Decks it Out in Latest Mode

By Betty Barclay

Follow the lead of Paris and use trimmings to give a festive air—to your meals, not to your clothes. A sprinkling of minced parsley or mint on soup and vegetables, a garnish of radish roses or celery curls for the meat, a ball of fruit juice sherbet on fruit cup or salad—these perky touches stimulate interest and appetite.

You can really work magic on a budget menu by serving sherbet for dessert. If you make your sherbet of sweetened condensed milk, it takes a few minutes' kitchen duty and always will be smooth and free from ice crystals. It's inexpensive, too.

Magic Strawberry Milk Sherbet (Automatic Refrigerator Method)

- 2/3 cup sweetened condensed milk
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons melted butter
- 1/4 cup water
- 1 cup crushed strawberries
- 2 egg whites

Blend sweetened condensed milk, lemon juice and melted butter thoroughly. Add water and crushed strawberries. Chill. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing pan. Place in freezing unit. After mixture is about half frozen remove from refrigerator. Scrape mixture from sides and bottom of pan. Beat until smooth but not until melted. Smooth out and replace in freezing unit until frozen for serving. Serves 6.

Apricot and Orange Sherbet

- (Automatic Refrigerator Method)
- 2/3 cup sweetened condensed milk
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1/2 cup orange juice
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/2 cup apricot pulp
- 2 egg whites

Blend sweetened condensed milk, fruit juices and water. Add apricot pulp; chill. Beat egg whites until stiff and fold into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing pan. Place in freezing unit. After mixture is about half frozen remove from refrigerator. Scrape mixture from sides and bottom of pan. Beat until smooth but not until melted. Smooth out and replace in freezing unit until frozen for serving. Serves 6.

ASPARAGUS IN LEMON RINGS

Remove pulp from thick slices of lemon. In these rings of peel, insert 3 or 4 stalks of cooked asparagus. Serve hot with Lemon Hollandaise Sauce.

Lemon Hollandaise Sauce

- 1 tablespoon salad oil
- Heat in top of double boiler. Combine in order given:
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 1 cup milk
- Stir continuously until thick, cooking for about 10 minutes. Add slowly, stirring constantly:
- 3 tablespoons salad oil
- Remove from fire. Stir in, again mixing well:
- 1 teaspoon salt

1/2 teaspoon paprika
3 tablespoons lemon juice
Beat in thoroughly, one at a time:
2 egg yolks
Reheat slowly, stirring all the time. Do not overcook. If sauce separates add 1 teaspoon cold water and stir well. Serve hot. Serves 6-8.

TIPS FOR HOT DAY MEALS

Here's a tip for summer menu planners. Keep a generous supply of canned unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice on your pantry shelves this summer. The juice is a delicious thirst quencher morning, noon or night and may be used as well in the preparation of many zesty dishes.

Pineapple Sabayon

- 4 egg yolks
- 4 tablespoons sugar
- 1 cup unsweetened Hawaiian pineapple juice
- Pinch of salt
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1 teaspoon vanilla
- Few drops of rum flavoring

Beat yolks of eggs until thick and creamy, add sugar and place in top of double boiler and continue to beat. Add the pineapple and lemon juice and salt. Remove beater and stir well with a silver spoon until the mixture coats the spoon like a cooked custard.

Keep the water in the bottom part of the double boiler at the simmering point so the mixture will not curdle. Cool and add vanilla and rum flavoring. Chill well and serve over fruit gelatin, snow pudding or slices of sponge cake topped with fresh blackberries, black raspberries or Youngberries. Yield: Approximately 1 1/2 cups.

WAR DISPATCHES

ing with the French, presumably leading the onslaught against German forces in the Saar region.

Reports received from Switzerland alleged that Germany was planning to infringe the rights on unnamed neutral states.

No details were given in the latest French communique which confirmed continued progress in the Franco-British effort to blast through Germany's famed Siegfried Line.

London, Sept. 7.—Indicating official British recognition of an independent Czech state and revival of Czech independence, the Ministry of Information announced today that a Czech regime is being formed in London.

Circulars concerning the movement bear the signature of former President Benes.

British recognition of the movement was implied in the fact that the government formally announced its inauguration.

Rome, Sept. 7.—Heavy air bombing of German industrial areas in the Saarbrücken region was reported by Italian newspapers in dispatches from Brussels today.

The planes returned to France under heavy anti-aircraft fire. The rumble of French heavy artillery was heard, the messages said.

French Troops Hammer At The Heart Of Germany's West Wall

British troops, meanwhile, were reported by Paris to be landing rapidly in France. These initial forces are expected to be limited to 100,000 to 120,000 men. The General Staff plan worked out by the French and British called for a small, but highly mechanized British force in France, leaving British main-power to concentrate on fighting in the air and on the sea.

France's reported progress in the center of the Limes line means, military authorities infer from the terse French communique, that only minor German outer defenses have been penetrated, and that the real wall of the German line has not yet been encountered.

BEEF POT-ROASTS FOR HEARTY MEAL

For the hearty meal which appeals to the men at any time of the year, you can make no better choice than a savory tender pot-roast. Serve it with noodles or dumplings and gravy if the day is a wee bit chilly; if the day is warm, serve it with cool crisp cole slaw and you will have a combination which will make a hearty meal that will win compliments galore.

For pot-roasts, beef chuck, rump, or heel of the round are ideal cuts to choose, for while they are classed as less tender cuts, they can be made very tender by the long slow cooking given when prepared in this way, and they are chock full of extractives which make them taste so good. These cuts may be boned and rolled, if you wish, for ease in carving.

The method of cooking pot-roasts is very simple, indeed, and here is the way, according to Lucie S. Willson, home economist.

Beef Pot Roast
4 pounds beef chuck, rump or heel of round
Flour for dredging
Lard for browning
Salt and pepper
Water

Dredge the pot-roast with flour, season with salt and pepper, and brown well on all sides in hot lard. Add one-half cup hot water, cover and cook very slowly until done. If the liquid cooks away, add more but only a little at a time. Allow about three hours for cooking.

While this is the standard method for cooking a pot-roast, there are many ways to obtain variety with pot-roast. Have you tried these:

Instead of using water as the liquid, use tomato juice. Season with a bay-leaf.

The liquid from a small bottle of horseradish adds an excellent flavor to the pot-roast as well as to the gravy. Pour this over the meat after it is browned.

Before cooking, cut slits into the pot-roast and insert stuffed olives, pushing them into the meat so they stay in place.

Rub the kettle in which a pot-roast is to be cooked with a cut clove of garlic before browning.

The Eating of the Green

By Frances Lee Barton

COLORS have certain traits that are universally sensed. The green of grass or leaves; the green of the ocean; green salads, beverages and desserts—all give one a feeling of coolness at sight.

Remember this when serving meals. A cool looking salad attracts. A cool tasting salad delights. A carefully balanced green salad is ideal for these early Fall days, particularly when the thermometer is still too high for comfort.

Sea Dream Cheese Salad
1 package lime-flavored gelatin; 1 cup hot water; 1 cup grated cucumber; 1 tablespoon vinegar; 1/2 teaspoon scraped onion; dash of cayenne; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese; 1/4 cup sliced green pepper; 1 cup diced celery.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add cucumber, vinegar, onion, cayenne, and salt. Force through sieve. Chill. When slightly thickened, add 1/2 softened cream cheese. Fold in green pepper and celery, turn into individual molds, and chill until firm. Fill molds with remaining thickened gelatin mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise, if desired. Serves 6.

AT THE CAPITOL

By International News Service
HARRISBURG, Sept. 7.—Although Pennsylvania does not elect a new Governor until 1943, the rumor mill has already turned out a number of "prospective" candidates for the gubernatorial post. . . . Latest to be mentioned in political circles as desiring the executive position was James F. Torrance, Westmoreland County "dirt" farmer and Republican State Chairman.

Torrance, it was said, would relinquish his State Chairmanship in order to become a candidate for the GOP nomination. . . . No official confirmation of the report, of course, could be obtained. . . . It was still too far from 1943 for any definite statements.

In addition to Torrance, one present member of the James Cabinet has signified his intention of seeking the gubernatorial post. . . . That was William S. Livingston, Jr., Secretary of Internal Affairs and a native of Somerset County. . . . Livingston is only now serving his first "major" political term, having held several Somerset County offices previously. . . . Only 39 years old, Livingston is one of the youngest of Republican big-wigs.

War news has shoved Pennsylvania's primary election campaign into the background. . . . With the European situation as it is, only a very few candidates for Supreme and Superior Courts or for county and municipal offices were actively campaigning. . . . Most of the candidates, Republicans and Democrats alike, were evidently relying upon securing organization support for victory.

The war scare and eventual actualities likewise put an almost complete stoppage to Capitol Hill activity during the hectic days of last week when peace negotiations evidently failed and Adolf Hitler's war machine invaded Poland. . . . Throughout the capital, office duties were forgotten temporarily and ears were glued to radio loud-speakers for war news. . . . In addition, Capitol Hill news coverage lightened drastically as all Pennsylvania papers gave way to war news.

Only the one-man "private war" of Howard G. Eisman, chairman of the Milk Control Commission, who resigned to Gov. Arthur H. James only to later withdraw the resignation, lived news interest at the Capitol. Eisman had bitterly assailed the Governor's milk policy, resigned "effective September 16," but the Governor made the resignation "effective immediately" with the result that Eisman changed his mind and said he would continue in office until expiration of his term in 1943. . . . The Governor had other ideas about that, however, and said Eisman was out and ordered him cut from the payroll. . . . The question remained in a confused state over the Labor Day weekend.

Farmers Warned Not To Be "Burned" By Turmoil

ing held a sewing session and completed the required number of garments.

The Pomona Deputy, Joseph C. Winder, reported having visited Middletown and Pineville Granges.

Pomona Chaplain, the Rev. Clarence S. Kulp, invited all Grange members to services at the Baptist Methodist Church, of which he is pastor, at 10:15, standard time, September 24th. An invitation from Middletown Grange, Langhorne, to meet with them in December was accepted.

The afternoon session was in charge of Lecturer, Mrs. Walker Jackson. Singing of "The Call to Action" was followed by Mrs. Jackson's report of the recent lecturers' conference at Pennsylvania State College. Familiar quotations were given by several members, followed by group singing of a humorous selection, "I Love Geography."

The question, "What Is the Farmers' Interest in the Labor Question?", was informatively discussed by Joseph Parry and Henry C. Pickering, who feel all strikes affect the farmer very definitely, as the manufacturer cannot use the farm produce now used in industry, and the curtailment of wages during the strike prevents the employee from purchasing farm products. "If the farmer does not make a profit he cannot purchase the commodity or machinery produced when the industries resume operation."

State Representative Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville, was presented as the speaker of the day. He said he didn't intend to presume to tell a farmer how to operate his business but he feels the farmer must not allow labor agitators to dictate to him in any way. "Treat them as the Hershey farmers did at Hershey, and as a Somerset county farmer did when he wished employment in the Winter. He was told he would have to pay a $15.00 fee to a union; he refused, found the labor agitator and threw him out of town, and received the job he desired without having to join a labor organization. . . .

"The recent experiment of scarcity and resultant high prices, whether of Texas oil, pork, or anything else has been a failure. We need to have government officials keep their hands off of promotion of trade. We should have a sense of freedom and independence."

Tyrol Hall presented a humorous skit, "Tyrol Hall Hat Shop." Among the hats shown were Trylon, Perisphere hat, a parachute model, one with airplane trimming, one vegetable and a flower tube.

There was a beautiful display of zinnias, dahlias, nasturtiums, petunias, asters, and mixed bouquets.

A delicious meal was served in the banquet room by the Ladies Aid of Fallington Methodist Church.

Serve An Orange Salad

By BETTY BARCLAY

Number one idea for a summer menu is a fruit salad. Such a salad is popular with everyone and easy to make if certain simple rules are followed. Choose fruits for flavor and color contrast. The golden color of the orange, for example, contrasts well with the reds, purples and greens of berries, cherries, grapes and melons. Group fruits attractively on crisp salad greens (and be sure greens are crisp). Vary greens—lettuce, romaine, chicory, watercress, purple cabbage. Use lemon juice in dressings. Lemon juice does things for fruit salads.

For a further variation serve salad one day as an appetizer, again as an accompaniment or let this dish do double duty as salad and dessert. For a luncheon or supper a satisfying main dish is provided by a cheese or nut salad. Serve all of these salads in generous portions. The body needs the vitamin and mineral food elements they provide.

Especially excellent as a salad fruit is the orange. It offers a juicy and refreshing base for many decorative and delicious salad combinations with other summer fresh fruits and is used as the base for the salad suggestions that follow. The California Valencia oranges in market this summer in such abundance are especially good for slicing, since they are firm, segmented and practically seedless. With a sharp knife remove all skin and inner membrane down to juicy meat. Cut in thin even slices.

Some excellent fruit salad combinations calling for orange, follow:

Hollywood Appetizer Salad: From California comes the custom of beginning the meal with an appetizing-stimulating fruit salad. For whole is in accord.

IT is a fact, too, that Mr. Roosevelt has had help from opponents in his national defense program. For that program he was not only entitled to support but to credit. Last time war came without warning. It caught the nation terribly unprepared. This time, it is true, the warnings were such as to leave no excuse for failure to prepare. Nevertheless, the preparations have been intelligently and thoroughly made. As a result the country has withstood—and will withstand—the shock without the severe dislocations that followed the 1914 war declarations.

It seems certain, too, that if and when the President calls the special session, neutrality revision, blocked last session, will go through and that those who oppose him on domestic issues will not for any partisan or personal reason handicap his efforts to keep the country neutral and further prepare for war. However, this sort of support would certainly be easier if Mr. Roosevelt could be induced to check the offensive partisanship and small selfishness of the group of friends and advisers who infest the White House and are known as the "palace politicians."

THAT some of these see in the present terrible situation an opportunity to promote their own political schemes for perpetuating the regime of which they are a part has been made plain in a number of ways. Apparently, there are men close to the President who think and interpret this war in terms of New Deal politics. Apparently, they are concerned about it only because of the effect in keeping Mr. Roosevelt—which means themselves—in power and in keeping the New Deal faction in control.

FOR example, it is unfortunate that the very day before Mr. Roosevelt made his Sunday night appeal this group should have launched an attack upon Mr. John Hancock, the most recently selected member of the new War Resources Board. Largely because he opposed some of the unreasonable regulations of the SEC in the time of the Douglas chairmanship, he is now referred to as a "stench in the nostrils" of the true New Dealers. In addition, the "true New Dealers" express dissatisfaction with the general personnel of the board, not on the sound ground that there are on it no men of experience but on the unsound ground that there are on it no "true New Dealers."

THE opinion is publicly expressed by those who have the confidence of this group that unless the Hancock appointment is offset by others who represent real New Dealers, another feud between the radicals and conservatives in the Administration will ensue and the preparedness program be badly handicapped. As though this were not enough, on the very morning before the President's address urging abandonment of partisanship, one of the most cherished of the White House journalists, a true reflector of "inner circle" views, burst forth with a lengthy piece on the effect of the war on the third tier.

IT is not charged that Mr. Roosevelt knew or inspired these things, but it does seem that he might find time to know what his friends are doing. It would seem that he would tolerate that sort of thing even less from his friends than from his enemies. It further would seem that there is slight excuse not to know it. If that kind of stuff had appeared in the newspapers from his opponents he would have known it very quickly and been publicly indignant about it. One would think that Mr. Roosevelt would have used his influence to shut the partisan mouths of his own little "inner circle" before he made his plea to those outside.

Council of Republican Women
Is To Hear Warwick P. Scott

When members of Bucks County Council of Republican Women and their friends assemble this evening in the Doylestown Country Club, they will have the privilege of listening to the Hon. Warwick Potter Scott, prominent Philadelphia attorney, who will deliver an address on the subject, "The America I Want."

This session, announces Mrs. John W. Cooper, president of Bucks County Council, will be open to both men and women.

Candidates for nomination on the Republican ticket will be introduced by county chairman A. Harry Clayton. The North Penn Male quartet is to offer selections.

SUNDAY DINNER

Suggestions

By CORA ANTHONY

MOST meat and poultry prices are low. Beef, fresh and smoked pork are the best meat values and broiling and frying chickens, fowl and ducklings the best poultry values. Eggs are five or six cents a dozen cheaper than last August and there are plenty of fresh eggs available.

Apples are again plentiful and low in price. Peaches should reach the peak of this year's crop during the remainder of the month. Melons are reasonable and particularly acceptable in hot weather. Small size oranges, lemons and limes are inexpensive.

Green and lima beans, beets, carrots, corn, eggplant, squash, sweet potatoes and tomatoes are excellent choices in both quality and price.

"Frontier Marshal," which opens today at the Grand Theatre.

Randolph Scott and Nancy Kelly head the great cast of this thrilling 20th Century-Fox production, which also prominently features Cesar Romero, Binnie Barnes and John Carradine.

Scott has his most colorful role to date as Wyatt Earp, the gun-fighting marshal who brought in the law at the end of his six-gun and stayed alive because no one ever beat him to the draw. The lovely Nancy Kelly is cast as the beautiful, brave, unflinching girl who followed Doc Holliday, the man she loved, to this God-forsaken borderland town to save him. Romero is cast as Holliday, elegant gambler and deadly killer, who, for reasons of his own, had dropped his useful life back East to come to Tombstone, a bitter, desperate man, waiting for death.

A daring bank robbery, cleverly conceived and boldly executed by a notorious thief starts the latest and best of the "Drummond" films, "Bulldog Drummond's Bride," on the way to more than an hour of thrill-packed entertainment. With John Howard in the role of "Drummond" once again, and Heather Angel as "Phyllis," his fiancée of long standing, the picture opened last night at the Bristol Theatre.

Once again the famous sleuth becomes involved in the sort of danger and mystery which has prevented his marriage to "Phyllis" so many times. However, the H. C. (Sapper) McNeill story provides a climax—implied in the title—to which many Drummond fans have looked forward through the thrill-packed films preceding this one.

What?
No Frosting?

By Frances Lee Barton

MEAT without gravy, bread without butter, or cake without frosting—these are not the things that appeal.

Of course some delicious cakes are not to be frosted. As a rule, however, the frosting is desirable. Furthermore, the frosting should vary. Keep away from constant repetition and serve some new frosting that will delight. Here is one that is ideal for straight cakes, layer cakes or cup cakes:

Chocolate Mocha Frosting
2 tablespoons butter; 2½ cups sifted confectioners' sugar; ½ teaspoon vanilla; ¼ teaspoon salt; ½ square unsweetened chocolate, melted; 3 tablespoons strong coffee. Cream butter; add part of sugar gradually, blending after each addition. Add vanilla, salt, and chocolate and mix well. Add remaining sugar, alternately with coffee, until of right consistency to spread. Beat after each addition until smooth. Makes enough frosting to cover tops of two 9-inch layer cakes, or about 2 dozen cup cakes.

ON THE SCREENS

RITZ THEATRE

Throw tigers into Daniel's den of lions, and you'll have an idea of what Director W. S. Van Dyke had to worry about with his 700 Indians on location at Lake Tahoe.

The Indians were camped there for the lavish "Totem Pole" dance of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's first sound pictorialization of the classic light opera "Rose Marie," tonight at the Ritz Theatre.

More than 50 tribes were represented, six tribes had more than 75 warriors each, and two tribes more than 99 each.

RIGHT PUNCH DID IT

Lenny Dever Rushed To Hospital After Knock-Out by Matt Parker

BOXING—ST. ANN'S ARENA
Results of Last Night's Fight:
Matt Parker, 123, Doylestown, knocked out Lenny Dever, 123, Bristol, in the third round.
Tony Puccinitti, 134, Trenton, scored a technical knockout over Howard Sewell, 139, Philadelphia, in the first round.
Gene Kirk, 122, Philadelphia, won the decision over Tally Sciarra, 125, Bristol, in four rounds.
Buck Streeter, 130, Doylestown, scored a technical knockout over Able Kaufman, 135, Philadelphia, in the fifth round.
Sammy Sindora, 147, Trenton, won the decision over Willie Coleman, 153, Philadelphia, in six rounds.
Angelo Maglione, 157, of Trenton, was stopped by Midget Wolgast, 135, Philadelphia, in the first round.
Referee: Sammy Moffo. Judges: Charles Liebra and Charles Aita. Timer: John Rich. Announcer: William Spezzano. Physician: Dr. H. R. Giordano.

By T. M. J. 266
The fat around his waistline did not make him appear like the Wolgast of several years back, but the wallop packed in his right hand did. That is the story of how Midget Wolgast looked last night in the wind-up of the boxing card held in the St. Ann's A. A. Arena as the Philadelphia finished Angelo Maglione in the first round.

It required but two minutes and twenty-eight seconds for Wolgast to stop the back-sliding Maglione. It was a right hand punch on the chin that put Angelo down for the count. At seven, Tony attempted to rise but he merely rocked over for the full count. There was very little to the fight as before the fatal punch, the boys were feeling one another out. Midget opened with a fast but light left. Tony rushed him and then hooked to the body. The Midget again left his foe and one of Tony's punches landed on Wolgast's shoulder. Tony got in a right and jabbed his opponent lightly with three lefts. While dancin' around, Wolgast swung his right which caught Maglione on the jaw and the Trentonian went down for the count. Wolgast at 135 pounds had a two pound advantage on Maglione.

Lenny Dever, local boxer, was knocked out in the third round of his bout with Matt Parker, colored, of Doylestown.
Until the knockout blow the fight had been fairly close. Dever carried the first round as the result of a brilliant rally before it closed and the localite was leading in the second until the colored boy shook him with a left and sent him sprawling to the mat at the bell. His seconds worked on him furiously to put him into condition to answer the bell for the third round.
The best bout of the evening was the four-rounder between Tally Sciarra, 125, Bristol, and Gene Kirk, 122, Philadelphia. Kirk earned the decision although it was very close.

The Bristolian had the fans on the edge of their seats in the third round when he arose from taking a count on the floor and began to pummel his foe with right and lefts so fast that the Philadelphia became a little wobbly and began to hold on.

Sciarra went on to win the last round but the early fighting margin of Kirk had put him in the lead which was a trifle too much to overcome.
A gash on the head stopped the bout between Able Kaufman, Philadelphia, and Buck Streeter, colored youth from Doylestown. Kaufman, Philadelphia, and Buck Streeter, colored youth from Doylestown, Kaufman sustained the injury in the fifth round. Just how Kaufman received the cut is a mystery.

But anyhow, it wasn't much of a fight, but it was Streeter's fault. Buck tried to make Kaufman fight but the Philadelphia was contented in just grabbing Streeter and attempt to prevent him from hitting. Kaufman wanted to wrestle more than fight.
Streeter did get in some good punches at times and when he did, Kaufman felt him so much that twice he hit the canvas, one time taking the count of nine.

The bout between Tony Puccinitti, 134, Trenton, and Howard Kid Sewell, 139, Philadelphia, lasted just 56 seconds when a long cut over Sewell's eye made Referee Sammy Moffo stop the fight and award it to Puccinitti on a technical knockout. Sewell was floored with the first punch of the fight and again before it was over.

Despite the fact that he spotted his foe six pounds, Sammy Sindora, 147, Trenton, won each of the six rounds of his contest with Willie Coleman, Philadelphia.

Several times during the bout, Sindora had Coleman wobbly but the colored boy kept holding on and made Sindora miss hay-makers. Coleman did not do very much fighting but plenty of clinching. In the fourth session, Coleman was shaken with 4 straight rights which broke down his guard but still Sammy failed to get in the knockout blow.

Coleman came to in the last canto and sunk a few hooks into Sindora's body but the Philadelphia was so tired, the blows did not even sting the Trenton boxer.

Lenny Dever Suffers A Rib Fracture, Concussion

A Bristol fighter, who was knocked unconscious at the boxing bouts at St. Ann's Arena, last evening, was returned to his home from the hospital, after regaining consciousness more than two hours later.
Lenny Dever, 123, local boy, was rushed to the Harriman Hospital after he was knocked by Matt Parker, colored, Doylestown. Parker finished Dever with a hard right to the jaw in the third session. Dever was carried to his corner and when he failed to come to was carried from the right into the dressing room. The Athletic Commission-appointed physician, Dr. H. R. Giordano attempted to bring Dever to and when he failed ordered him to the Harriman Hospital.
During the two hours time, after Dever was taken to the hospital, he regained consciousness periodically. He sustained a concussion and suspected fracture of the ribs, it is stated.

Oppose Bund Camp Outside Sellersville

"We are free Americans," he shouted, giving the Nazi salute. Kuhn began his speech in German but later changed to English. Some of the Bund members, dressed in storm-trooper uniforms, were reported to have roughed up photographers, hustling them out of the meeting and attempting to expose their film.

With Kuhn at the meeting were William Kunze, of New York, national director of the Bund publicity, and a man in charge of the meeting, a Philadelphia, who identified himself out, as T. E. Martin.

Before his speech, Kuhn said he was confident the Bund would support United States neutrality in the European war.
"And neutrality to me," he continued, "means that we should ship no war material to the Allies or to Germany. This is not my opinion alone; it is also the opinion of the Bund, shown in canvasses I have made."

"The Bund wants no money for Germany. We believe the Poles in this country are acting improperly by taking American money and sending it to Poland to help prosecute the war.
"Our organization is distinctly an agency for the spreading of propaganda. To begin with, we have none to spread. We know no more of what is going on in Germany than does anybody else who reads the newspapers. We have to read between the lines in times like these, just as everybody else does."

Kuhn charged that the Dies Committee (investigating un-American activities) was an active agency for the spread of "the worst sort of propaganda."

"We in the Bund," he went on, "are good, loyal American citizens. We will be even better citizens if such people as the members of the Dies Committee will permit us to be."

The Bund chieftain denied a report that he had sent a cable to the German Government on behalf of the Bund.

Before and after Kuhn's speech, Bund members clad in gray shirts and black trousers celebrated the holiday week-end with games and singing at the 130-acre country club estate.

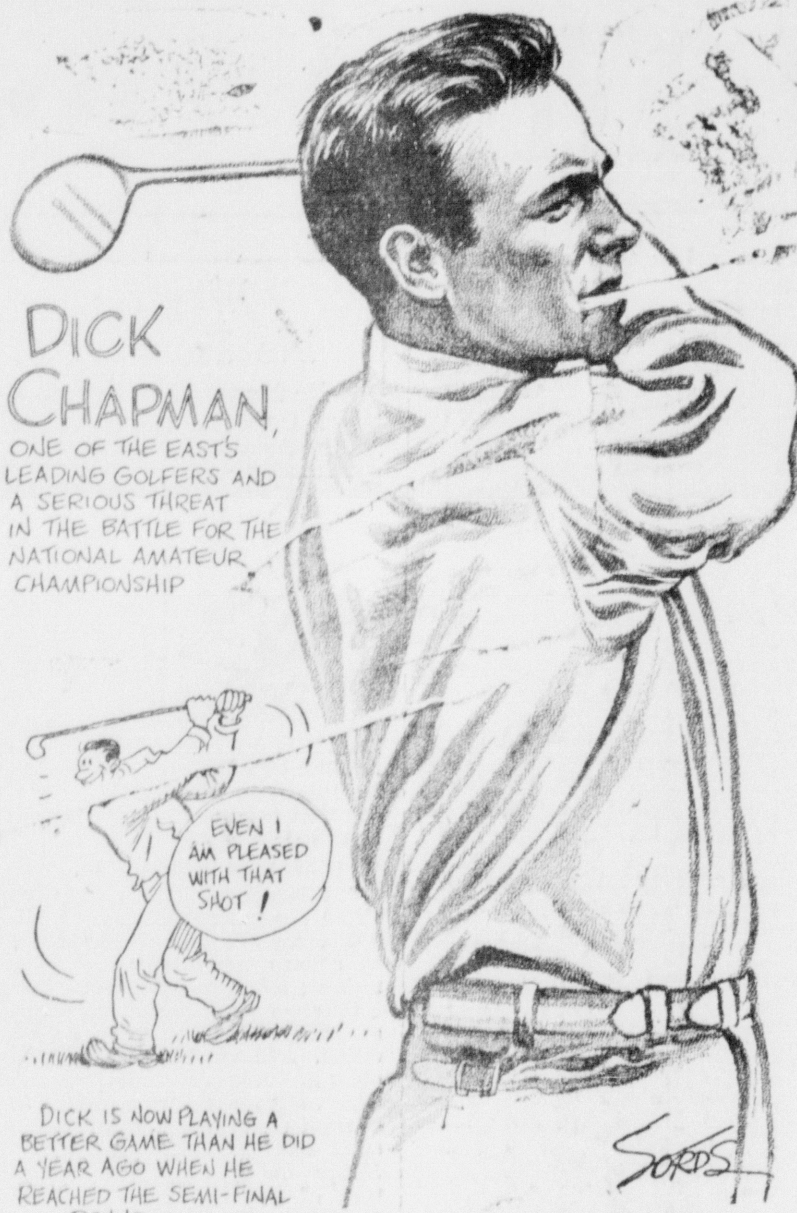

Most of those present were from Philadelphia. All gave the Nazi salute as Kuhn mounted the platform.

Later they made their way to Vancouver, Canada, where they started by the boat "Robert" to Alaska.

They saw the largest parking and cold storage plant in the world on the trip. The cruise to Alaska, lasting 12 days and including 3,500 miles of traveling, provided beautiful scenery throughout.

Numerous Cases Heard By Court, Sentences Imposed

The Bucks County Prison on the drunken driving charge.

Sentence was suspended on the charge of felonious entry. The youthful defendant was also directed to pay the costs of prosecution on the drunken driving charge.

Allen, who was arrested near Andalusia on August 6 by Private John P. Mitchell, of the South Langhorne substation of the Penna. Motor Police, figured in an automobile accident and left the scene of the crash.

Private Mitchell testified that Allen entered the garage of Kirk Broadnax after the crash "with the idea of taking the car to get away."

Taking the stand, the young man, who told President Judge Keller he has been employed "off and on" by the National Youth Administration, said he visited several taprooms with friends, but that he did not remember a thing until he woke up in the Bristol police station.

Private Mitchell testified that in a confession made to him the defendant said he remembered going into a taproom in Frankford, but that he could not remember leaving Philadelphia and driving his friend's car into Bucks county. His friend, who owned the car which the defendant was operating, remained at the scene of the crash. The other car, which was involved and damaged to the extent of more than $150, was driven by Douglas Gittan. Allen was arrested on August 9 on a charge of larceny by an automobile, but was later discharged.

"How long have you been with the N. Y. A.?" President Judge Keller asked the defendant. "Off and on," he replied.

"Are you learning a trade or trying to get a job?" asked Judge Keller.

"Yes, I have a leaking heart," said the young man, who explained he is learning book binding.

The Court approved master's reports and granted divorces in the following cases:

Lillian Doyle vs Joseph Thomas Doyle; Margaret Anna Northhardt vs Clifford Earl Northhardt; Anna M. Benner vs Paul Benner; Albert A. Todd vs Elsie M. Todd.

Michael Gural, 32, Dublin, was granted parole by Judge Calvin S. Meyer. Gural, who was sentenced June 1 by Judge Boyer to serve not less than four months nor more than two years on a charge of failure to stop a motor vehicle at the scene of an accident, pleaded guilty to hitting a man, near his home at Dublin, May 14, while operating his car. The injured man was left lying along the roadside. Gural's minimum sentence would have expired September 19.

He was granted a parole because his father and mother need his services.

Gural has been in the County Prison since May 19.

Daniel Kanton Jones, 50, a Negro, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, was paroled this morning.

Jones was sentenced July 3, to serve not less than two months nor more than two years. He was directed by Judge Boyer to stay out of the county.

Christian C. VanOlst, 44, charged with uttering worthless checks, was granted a parole on condition that he pay the costs of prosecution.

He was sentenced March 6 by President Judge Hiram H. Keller to serve not less than two months nor more than two years.

Because he is suffering from acute conjunctivitis and needs daily medical treatment, he was granted the parole by President Judge Keller.

James T. Robertson, 51, charged with drunken driving, was granted a parole on condition that he pay the costs of prosecution before he is released and also that the parole be subject to a detainer from Philadelphia authorities. He was sentenced May 15 to serve not less than four months nor more than three years.

Isalah McClain, 46, charged with illegal manufacture of alcoholic liquor, was granted a parole subject to a detainer lodged from Federal Penitentiary authorities at Lewisburg.

McClain was sentenced September 6, 1938, by Judge Keller to serve not less than one nor more than three years.

Frank Jones, charged with illegal manufacture of alcoholic liquor, was granted a parole subject to a detainer from Federal Penitentiary authorities at Lewisburg.

He was sentenced by Judge Keller September 6, 1938, to serve not less than one nor more than three years.

Ernest V. Booth, 34, Michigan, who pleaded guilty to drunken driving before President Judge Hiram H. Keller, this morning, sentenced him to pay the costs of prosecution and serve not less than 30 days nor more than two years.

Chief Albert Cooper, of Morrisville, arrested the defendant operating an ice truck, August 5, in Morrisville.

Booth, a former sailor, was granted a parole this morning and directed to pay the costs of prosecution.

President Judge Keller did not require the defendant to file a formal application for parole but directed the defendant be held until the costs are paid.
